Dietary requirements and policy

The kitchen of Venwoude mainly serves vegetarian and organic meals. If a certain diet has to be followed for medical reasons, this can easily be stated when booking the accommodation online. Our kitchen offers a lactose-free, gluten-free and vegan diet as standard and free of charge; for specific medical diets, the chef will determine whether additional costs are involved.

Venwoude does its utmost to process the diets as well as possible, but we can never rule out cross-contamination and we cannot be held liable for any consequences.

Room layout

You sleep in a single room or you share a double room with another participant of your training/retreat. The classification is always based on m/m and f/f, unless you indicate your own roommate when booking.
